

1. General Provisions:

- FerrovieDismesse.com in order to improve and develop the services offered is open to the cooperation of those who make request.
- Collaboration at free of charge and nothing will be required as compensation or reimbursement costs.
- All material submitted for publication on FerrovieDismesse.com must be unpublished or if already published elsewhere, the consent of the holder of the new publication rights must be present.
- Items will be published only if deemed appropriate in the sole opinion of the write.
- All material submitted will not return and can be used in printed publications or other obligation to mention the author.
- The contributor as a result of cooperation, should be contacted directly by users of the site, respond personally answers and each type of relationship that you should come to create. No claim, demand or responsibility may be charged in any way to FerrovieDismesse.com.
- The contributor, undertakes to respect the ownership of the service and trademarks, avoiding all kinds of use of names, trademarks, symbols or parts of the site without express permission of FerrovieDismesse.com.
- Authors can change to your liking all these services on FerrovieDismesse.com and communicating it to the contributor, http addresses and addresses of mail.
- All communications in the wording in respect of the contributor will be carried out through the email provided in the request for cooperation or through correspondence using the geographic address at release. The contributor should immediately notify any change of address to the write.

2. Acceptance and withdrawal

- The request collaboration will be assessed and evaluated as soon as possible. The evaluation and possible acceptance of the request for cooperation will be carried out on the basis of data provided by the applicant and still in the sole opinion of FerrovieDismesse.com write.
- FerrovieDismesse.com, as a result of violations of these rules, write or still at its sole judgment, may terminate collaboration at any time by giving them communication via email to the contributor.

3. Clauses of indemnification and declarations

- The contributor declares that the reported data are true and manleva FerrovieDismesse.com from related responsibilities authors as indicated.
- The contributor manleva FerrovieDismesse.com from any material and moral damage to persons or things arising from the service object authors.
- The contributor declares that all information, photos, images and texts provided are its property and however manleva the authors of FerrovieDismesse.com regarding the violation on the rights of copyright.

4. Authorisation to the processing of personal data

As regards the processing of personal data refers to the statement in force that is accepted in full at the time of submitting personal data with a request for cooperation.

5. Jurisdiction

Dispute on the interpretation and/or execution of this agreement, the jurisdiction to settle the dispute be exclusively to Como-Italy, abandoning the contributor expressly - now by then - to any exception in this regard. As far as not provided for in this agreement, makes explicit reference to the existing rules of law.